PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: Describe present appearance of structure/site, then contrast and compare that with it's original appearance, noting additions, alterations, and changes in materials. Discuss significant architectural features.

There are two mobile homes on this property. Both have corrugated sides and top, with no skirting.
These are intrusive structures.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE: Justify how the persons, important events, and/or historical patterns associated with the structure/site and surrounding area lend the property significance.

INTEGRITY: Assess the degree to which the structure/site, and surrounding area accurately convey the historical associations of the property.

These mobile homes are located at the edge of town, across from a large horse pasture, with extensively remodeled houses and another mobile home in the neighborhood. These are mobile homes and they are intrusive to the area.

INFORMATION VALUE: Explain how the extant structure/site may demonstrate or yield information about its historic use or construction.
